

Yellow Daffodil Celebrates Two Year Anniversary

The end of September marked two years since Yellow Daffodil opened its community store at the Pine Watson Shopping Center in Langhorne so they threw a party to celebrate and invited their employees, Woods' staff and friends from the community to join them. Pictured above left: during her address to the crowd, Tine introduces Nathan who delivers flowers to her office every week. Also above right: the staff of Yellow Daffodil don their new t-shirts created by Woods Wear our newest social enterprise.
